Fred James Injured at Lumber Yard, Breaking Bones in Heel--Carnival Proves a Success--Motor Tourists in Canada.

Fred James of Baltic met with a painful accident while loading lumber in Dawley's lumber yard in Norwich.
Mr. James, in order to save himself from falling on his head, jumped and broke the bones in his heel. The bones were set by Dr. Sweet of Jewett City.
Mr. James is employed by Contractor George Allen of Versailles.

Westerly Historical Society's Outing

Wednesday Spent at Wheeler School, North Stonington-- Instructive Papers and Addresses--Supreme Court Affirms Judgment for $2,400 in Bogle Case--Boston Speaker's Chestnuts Weary Board of Trade Dinners-- Pleasant View to Have First Wedding.

The fourth annual outing of the Westerly Historical society was enjoyed Wednesday by many of the members and visitors from Norwich, Jewett City and Stonington. The outing was held at the Wheeler school and library, North Stonington. The following programme was carried out:

Morning session, 10:30--Address of Welcome, Thomas R. Hewitt, Esq., president board of trustees Wheeler school and library; response, President Ethan Wilcox; Lantern Hill, Albertus C. Burdick, Jewett City; roll call, Pleasant View, North Stonington; Newspaper Articles Relating to North Stonington, Mrs. George W. Tryon, Wheeler school library, North Stonington; Bibliography of North Stonington, President Ethan Wilcox; recess.

Afternoon session, 2--Lantern Hill and its Legend, Rev. Oren D. Fisher; soprano solo, The Swans River, Mrs.
William D. Critcherson; Flora of North Stonington, Mrs. Eliza E. Rogers of Norwich; Your Flag and my Flag, Mrs. William D. Critcherson; America; dismissal, by Rev. Lucian Drury.

Prof. Robert Valentine of Westerly was accompanist. Votes of thanks were tendered to all who made the event a success.

Edward Perry Wells of Newton Center, Mass., was among the guests. He is a life member of the New England Historical and Genealogical society and was introduced by President Wilcox. Mr. Wells spoke briefly of his interest in the work and the general importance and benefits of historical societies.

There were over 100 at the outing and it was the most successful ever held under the auspices of the Westerly Historical society.

The committee that arranged the pleasurable and instructive event was composed of President Ethan Wilcox, Everett E. Whipple, Mrs. James O.
Babcock, Miss Louise Ayers, Miss Julia E. Smith and Albert D. Crandall.

The supreme court has handed down a receipt in the case of Lucy Thorpe Bogle against the Western Light and Power company. The decree of the superior court is affirmed and the cause is remanded to the superior court for Washington county for further proceedings under the decree as affirmed. James Bogle, the husband of the plaintiff, was in the employ of the defendant company and while at work in the power house fell from a staging and was injured in the head.
He did not work for a month following the accident, then he returned and worked for a month. He was again taken sick, given hospital treatment, but survived only a short time.

Suit was brought by the widow to recover under the employers' compensation act, when it was set up by the insuring company, the real defendant in the case, that Mr. Bogle did not die from the injury received in the accident, but from other causes, and therefore his widow was not entitled to compensation. The case was tried out before Judge Barrows in the superior court and judgment was given that the plaintiff receive the full amount due under the compensation act, which in the Bogle case amounted to $2,400. An appeal was taken to the supreme court, and now the judgment of the superior court is affirmed.

Jefferson Lee Harbour of Boston, who has specialized for several years in his lecture, "Blessed Be Humour," making it at the annual banquet of the Westerly Board of Trade. Judging from comment heard during his sing-song-talk, and at its pleasing conclusion, it is about time that Blessed Be Humour and its author be placed in the discard. The effort of the gentleman from Boston was in marked contrast to the able, eloquent address on The Business Man's Greatest Asset, which he clearly explained was personality, delivered by Rev. W. Warren Giles of Orange, N. J. The address was punctuated with true funniness, just enough to balance, to lighten the real seriousness, at intervals, caused by the masterly delivery of perhaps the most interesting address ever given at a banquet of the Westerly Board of Trade.

Local Laconics.
Many from Westerly attended the Crowley-Leahy wedding in Stonington borough Wednesday.

Henry (Buster) Ellonsky of New London is planning for a swimming school at Wick Hill.

There is to be a wedding at Pleasant View before the week ends; the first ever at that shore resort.

Robert Horgan of New York, in the employ of Bradstreet, is at his former home in Pawcatuck on vacation.

Private John T. Gent of the United States army recruiting service has been in Westerly two days, and not a recruit.

"Stand by your flag and the administration in these perilous times," is the advice given by Speaker Giles at the Board of Trade banquet.

Owens group of Camp Fire Girls, Miss Mary Starr Utter guardian, went to Pleasant View Wednesday and will spend a week at the Davys cottage.

The Fifth company, Coast Artillery corps, was inspected Tuesday evening by Major Arthur N. Nash. It was planned to administer the federal oath to the enlisted men at that time, but the blank forms were not received from the office of the adjutant general.

Misses Susie and Marguerite Saunders will leave today for Battle Creek, Mich., and study for nurses with the view of becoming graduates. They were entertained by the Christian Endeavourers of the Pawcatuck Seventh Day Baptist church Tuesday evening.

STONINGTON

Miss Sarah C. Leahy Becomes Bride of Dr. James M. Crowley--Project to Forward Letter Mail to Block Island From Borough.

In the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, Miss Sarah C.
Leahy, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. Jos. F. Leahy of Stonington, was united in marriage Wednesday morning at a solemn nuptial mass at St.
Mary's church with Dr. James M.
Crowley of Westerly, Rev. James E.
O'Brien officiating.

The church was prettily decorated with flowers, plant and ferns intermingled with tapers.

The bride was given away by her father and entered the church as the Lohengrin wedding march was sung by Mrs. F. D. Stanton, accompanied by Mrs. James Murphy, organist.

During the ceremony a quartette composed of Mrs. F. D. Stanton, Mrs.
Michael Higgins, Martin H. Spelman and C. Leo Higgins rendered Jesu Mei at the offertory and at the conclusion of the mass sang Veni Jesu.
Mrs. Murphy played a recessional in gold.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Josephine Leahy. Joseph Crowley, a brother of the groom was best man.

The bride was attired in white tulle over tulle, trimmed with peot ribbon and orange blossoms. She carried a large bouquet of bridal roses.

The bridesmaid wore orchid tulle over pink satin with picture hat to match. She carried sweet peas.

After the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's father in Williams street. The bride received many beautiful and useful gifts including three hundred dollars in gold.

There were many guests present including those from Providence, R. I., Athol, Mass., Milford, Mass., Woonsocket, R. I., New York, Philadelphia, Plainfield, N. J., New Haven, New London and Westerly.

On the return from a wedding tour to Washington, D. C., Dr. and Mrs.
Crowley will take up their new residence at 71 High street, Westerly, R.
I.

Borough Briefs.
Mr. and Mrs. William D. Leahy of Milford, Mass., and Mrs. Albert Leahy of Plainfield, N. J., were at the Crowley-Leahy wedding Wednesday.

Rowe E. Wilcox of Brown University is at his home in Stonington for a brief visit. He has been engaged to play with the band at Crescent Park, during the summer.

Postmaster Leahy and his two sons were off duty Wednesday to attend the Crowley-Leahy wedding. James Spelman and William Gleason of the Westerly and Mystic post office, respectively substituted.

The game of baseball on Stanton field next Saturday afternoon will be between the Stonington Wanderers and the Central Vermonters of New London.

Mail to Block Island.
Improved mail service to Block Island was urged at the Post Office Department by Representative O'Shaughnessy of Rhode Island, who saw Second Assistant Postmaster General Frager about the matter. Mr. O'Shaughnessy asked that David Rubens be authorized to carry letter mail from Stonington to Block Island as he now carries newspaper mail. This would enable letters to reach the island by 3:30 a. m. instead of several hours latter, as is now the case.

MYSTIC

are spending a few weeks with her parents in Williams street.

Mrs. Willard Kelgwin was in Boston on Wednesday.

Bergen I. Greene substituted at the Mystic post office Wednesday.

House Sold.
Mrs. A. M. Purdy has sold her house on Pearl street to Simon Curlesky who will take possession at once.

Miss Laura M. Baggs of Barrington, R. I., is the guest of Mrs. John Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burnett of Hartford are visiting Hiram Burnett and family at Mystic and Warren Burnett of Burnett Corner.

A large crowd attended the band concert given Wednesday evening at Cray Park. The music was begun at 8 o'clock and lasted nearly two hours.
The following selections were rendered: March, Hail to the President by Prof. C. C. Wright of New London; overture, Golden Sceptre by Schlegel; grieg, march, Lindy Lane by J. Ambrose; waltz, Hydorpathen by Gungl;

Road to Mr. Sweet Adair; Underneath the Stars; waltz, Land of My Dreams, A. Herman, March, Long Live Our United States of America, Milico; Star Spangled Banner.

About thirty members of Charity Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, went to Moodus Wednesday and were entertained at the home of Mrs. Ebenezer Wilcox Brooks, who is a Past Matron of Charity chapter and until her marriage a few months ago was a great worker in the chapter. In the party were the officers of Charity chapter and the past matrons. At noon a dinner was served on the lawn and the day was very pleasantly spent. It was late when the party arrived in Mystic after a fine trip made in Binn's auto truck.

New Britain--Deserting from Company E. rather than go with his companions, Joseph Brushlac is under arrest.

SUMMERTIME IN A HURRY NOW

A Couch Hammock and Porch Screens For Comfort

We're going to take a sudden plunge right into the middle of mid-summer heat and the porch is going to be the place where comfort is most easily obtained. On a good hot Summer day a porch prettily screened with handsome Coolmor or Komi Screens, and provided with a well-made, sturdy, comfortable Boston Store Couch Hammock, is going to be a mighty popular place--and it can be yours for a very small outlay.
